MI6 CONFIDENTIAL – SKYFALL PREVIEW

ISSUE #17 OUT NOW

(London, UK, August 23rd 2012) MI6 Confidential, the full-colour magazine celebrating the world of James Bond 007, returns with its seventeenth issue.

The Bond world is buzzing. With just a few weeks to go before Skyfall hits cinemas, we've seen the launch of film's promotional campaign, the opening of the most exhaustive exhibition of 007 design, and Activision continually tease fans with a new look at their upcoming videogame, '007 Legends'.

We cover all of the above in this issue, but the highlight must be the time we spent with stunt coordinator, Gary Powell, who spoke exclusively to MI6 Confidential about the Skyfall pre-titles sequence. Finally, we have just enough time to celebrate the French Bond girls of the franchise, as Bérénice Marlohe joins their ranks this year.

Featured in this issue:

- Skyfall Action - Exclusive interview with stunt coordinator Gary Powell
- Entente Cordiale - Bérénice Marlohe joins a long list of French Bond Girls
- All About Eve - Naomie Harris plays an MI6 field agent in Skyfall
- 007 Legends - Activision lift the lid on their ambitious new videogame
- 50 Years Of Bond Style At The Barbican - Take a tour of the new exhibition
- Inside The EON Archive - Exclusive interview with Archive Director Meg Simmonds
- Sunspel In 007 Heaven - Recreating James Bond's iconic shorts
- The Bond Connection - Ex-Special Ops agent Aaron Cohen reveals Haywire's secrets
