MI6 CONFIDENTIAL – 007 RETURNS TO THE SILVER SCREEN ISSUE #22 OUT NOW

(London, UK, September 24th 2013) MI6 Confidential, the full-colour magazine celebrating the world of James Bond 007, returns with its twenty-second issue.

Take a journey back to James Bond's sophomore outing with this special collectors issue of MI6 Confidential, celebrating the second 007 film, From Russia With Love, as it marks its 50th anniversary in 2013.

With double the budget of the debut outing and filming commencing before Dr. No was released in the USA, this issue is a fascinating snapshot in time just before Bond Fever took over the world.

Featured in this issue:

- The Unkillable James Bond 007
- Putting The Phosphorus on the Bosphorus
- Honey Trap – Alluring Daniela Bianchi as Tatiana
- Close Quarters – Filming The Claustrophobic Train Fight
- Authority On Espionage – Fleming Draws on Real Life Scenarios
- Friendly Faces – Meet 007's Most Resourceful Allies
- You Are Requested At Once – Recreating a Crippling Chess Move
- It Never Pays To Linger On The Past
- Plus... A Dozen Vintage Press Featurettes

Issue #22 is now shipping around the world. To order online, visit www.mi6confidential.com
